

Art Shows

Enjoy our full Bar+, Appetizers and Café menu.
Organic and Sustainable Wines, local draft beer.

Saturday, August 6, 5-8

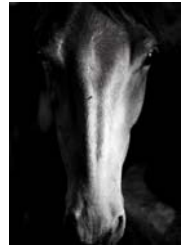

Mardi Gras in August- John Montre, Artist
Everyone loves a parade, and what's not to love about the wild Mardi Gras parade in St. Louis?

Montre

Thursday, August 11, 6-8

Picture this - Steve Truesdell, Artist
Horses and buildings and people and statues. The landscape of my life

Truesdell

Sunday, August 14, 1-3

Sinners and Saints - Meghan White, Artist
Good vs. Evil, exposed on film. An exploration of the eternal struggle, as seen through the lens of non-digital cameras.

White

Friday, August 19, 11-2

Two Chemicals, Many Views- Bob Herndon, Artist
Photographs taken through a polarizing microscope, even though of one chemical, can produce images of tremendous diversity, in structure, forms and colors. This month features 2 chemicals, Vitamin C and a-Lipoic Acid, with a small portion of the many forms possible.

Herndon

Saturday, August 20, 4-7

Letters and Shapes - Tom Lampe, Artist
As a photographer and a city enthusiast, there is nothing more fulfilling than selecting a location and taking a walk with no specific destination or time constraint. The next sense of wonder is just around the corner.

Lampe

Saturday, August 27, 11-2

Car Story - Kym Birkenkamp, Artist
Classic cars tell stories--in the nooks and crannies and details. Let me show you a different way to see these beauties.

Birkenkamp