

June 2010 Shows

Café Specials with each Art Event!

Angie Griffith

Friday, June 4, 4-7 PM

WHERE THE WILD THINGS WERE SUPPOSED TO BE
-Angie Griffith, Artist Emotions within us can be overpowering at times. Sometimes it feels as if they are in control instead of us being in control of them. Art is about a passionate emotional experience for me. When the words are not there, i communicate through the brush stroke.

Saturday, June 12, 5-8 PM

Awakening – Thomas Shepherd, Artist

The next show 'Awakening' will demonstrate collage and photography. The opening will be accompanied with a reading titled 'Into the Light and the Stars'.

Thomas Shepherd

A Lydia's House child

Wednesday, June 16, 5-9 PM

I am Lydia's House–

PPRC Photography Project

Moving exhibit by the children of Lydia's House, a transitional women's shelter for domestic violence victims.

Saturday, June 19, 4:30-7:30 PM

Upstairs Downstairs, Inside and Out: –Hilary Hitchcock, Artist

A visit to Globe Drugs. Globe Drugs on Cherokee Street is not just a neighborhood institution; although it is one -- if Globe doesn't have it, there's a good chance you don't really need it. It's also a treat for the eyes. This show features photos of some of the sights at Globe.

Hilary Hitchcock

Naomi Silver

Sunday, June 27, 11-1 PM

Finger Painting– Naomi Silver, Artist -Art created just like a 3 year-old. 20% of all art sold at this show will be donated to St Anthony's Food Pantry.