

May 2010 Shows

Café Specials with each Art Event!

Sunday, May 2, 12-3 PM

Calm – Thomas Shepherd, Artist
'Calm' deals with the aftermath of a storm, be it physical or emotional through collage and photography.

Thomas Shepherd

Friday, May 7, 4-7 PM

It's a Red Hot Experience- Angie Griffith, Artist
All art marked "RED HOT" is 10% off. PLUS 10% of all art Sales go to St Louis based Red Hot Missions to fight against Sex Trafficking

Angie Griffith

Saturday, May 15, 4-6PM

In the Mood- Naomi Silver, Artist
Remember mood rings? Art that reflects your mood. 20% of all art sold at this show will be donated to St Anthony's Food Pantry.

Naomi Silver

Sunday, May 23, 11-2:30 PM

Right this Instant – Hilary Hitchcock, Artist
Word on the street is that Polaroid instant film might make a comeback -- but not all of the various types, and its future is far from certain. I've had a lot of fun with the Polaroid film I've gotten my hands on; here are some of my results.

Hilary Hitchcock

Tuesday, May 25, 6-8PM

I am Lydia's House- PPRC Photography Project
Moving exhibit by the children of Lydia's House, a transitional women's shelter for domestic violence victims.

A Lydia's House child